NHRCN Submitted Its Annual Report to the President

National Human Rights Commission, Nepal's annual report has been submitted today to the Rt. Hon. President of Nepal. The report has been submitted in pursuant to the article 294 (1) of the Constitution by the Hon. Chairperson of the NHRCN.

Receiving the report, Rt. Hon. President Bidhya Devi Bhandari said that as a party to the international human rights treaties, state has the international obligation to fulfill the human rights. With regard to the respect and protection of human rights, the government is principally responsible as she said. She also added that moral education, gender based non – discrimination issues should be included in the school level curriculum. By showing concern to the criminal incidents happening in the country she said state should be responsible for the prosecution to the accused and provide justice to the victims. NHRCN has very crucial role for the protection of human rights and also for taking rights and duties together, she added.

In the annual report submission program, Hon. Members of the Commission, Secretary, Director and other staffs of the Commission were also presented.
