Nepal is elected as a member of UN Human Rights Council

Commission is hopeful to fruitful protection and respect of Human Rights

National Human Rights Commission, Nepal expresses happiness to the incident of Nepal being elected as a member in the UN Human Rights Council. By appreciating the diplomatic efforts of the Government of Nepal in the election process, NHRC Nepal owes grateful thanks to all the members of the United Nations who helped Nepal in the election.

Commission is hopeful that presence of Nepal in the UN Human Rights Council play significant role in ending the prevalent internal impunity. In the country, including torture, extra-judicial killing are very serious and complex in their form. The Commission strongly believes that the Government of Nepal draws adequate attention to the effective and agreed address to transitional justice. The government also draws its attention to the protection, promotion and respect of human rights.

NHRC Nepal believes that the presence of Nepal in the Human Rights Council enhances its respect and protection in the international arena and the implementation of the previous recommendations human rights. It also enhances the implementation of those promises made in front of the international forum in the process of Universal periodic review of human rights including notable change in the rule of law.
