NHRCN Monitored Tribhuvan International Airport

National Human Rights Commission, Nepal's Hon. member Sudip Pathak led team monitored the Tribhuvan International Airport on Tuesday on the occasion of December 18, the International Migrants Day. The team of NHRCN monitored the labour departure lounge, immigration lounge and the office of the Department of Immigration (DoI). During monitoring, the team also held discussions on various issues related to migrant workers with migrants' workers themselves, Director General of DoI and Director General of the Civil Aviation Authority of Nepal.

NHRCN during monitoring found that free visa free ticket policy was not fully implemented; most migrant workers were unskilled, unaware and uneducated about the language and laws of destination countries. The team after conducting meeting and discussing with the Director General of the Civil Aviation Authority of Nepal has suggested the airport officials to treat migrants in a proper manner.

NHRCN requests the government of Nepal to seek solution of the problems of Nepali migrants' workers basing their contribution to the national GDP and bring effective plans and programs for the protection of rights of migrants' workers, create employment opportunity within Nepal. The Commission has its own faith that only by the collective efforts of all the stakeholders protection of the rights of the migrants' workers is possible, so, appeals for the collaboration and coordination.
