Commission of Investigation on Enforced Disappeared Persons (CIEDP) Staff undergo training at NHRC

The staffs of the Commission of Investigation on Enforced Disappeared Persons (CIEDP) were provided with the training at the National Human Rights Commission with the objective to develop their capacity. Speaking at the inaugural session of the training, honorable Commissioner Govinda Sharma Poudyal said that the CIEDP need to be victim centric and advance the inquiry into the incidents of armed conflict with due sensitiveness. He assured that the Commission would pledge support to the CIEDP with regard to finding out the truth and providing justice to the victims.

Speaking at the program, Lokendra Mallik, Chairperson of the CIEDP said that the Commission was the victim centric and active in quest of truth as per the norms of values of human rights and added that the peace process would be a failure if it failed to do so. He urged all the parties to pledge their support in this concern.

Participated by 34 staff, the training will last for two days. During the training, the participants will be engaged in discussion on various topics such as the principle concept on the disappeared persons, experience of NHRC, international practice with regard to the inquiry on the enforced disappearance, identification through DNA examination including forensic test.
