NHRC draws its attention

National Human Rights Commission of Nepal draws its attention towards the expressions of NHRC member Mohna Ansari expressed through the social media (twitter) on 7 July, 2020 stating that the Socialist Party's decision of taking action to the parliamentarian Ms. Sarita Giri in accordance with its Constitution and the Political Parties Act is condemnable.

The Commission discards her expressions stated through the social media claiming that the action to be taken by her political party to Ms. Sarita Giri is "condemnable" and "so called probe report", invalidating the rights of the political party which exercised its rights as provided by the Constitution, law and the Constitution of political party. The Commission has also made alert its members not to express anything that creates confusion on 29 June 2020 and to express such type of expression in the twitter is condemnable. Therefore, it is informed that let no one be confused.
