The National Human Rights Commission observed the 10th death anniversary of its staffer late Dayaram Pariyar. On the occasion, Chairperson Hon Justice Anup Raj Sharma publicized the memoir 'Smarika' published in fond memory of late Dayaram Pariyar.

At the outset of the program held at the NHRC premises, the NHRC Officials, staff members and the participants of the program offered garland to late Pariyar amid a prayer with one minute silence held on the occasion.

Similarly Commissioner and Spokesperson Mohna Ansari announced the nominees of two prominent human rights activists to be honored with late Dayaram Pariyar Memorial Award.

The Commission is to confer this year's Dayaram Pariyar Human Rights Memorial Award on Kantipur journalist Shyam Sundar Shashi and Charimaya Tamang, founder of Shakti Samuha. The duo will be honored at a program to be held on the occasion of the NHRC day scheduled on 26th May, 2016.

On the occasion, denouncing the deep-rooted impunity in the country, Chairperson Sharma said the human rights activists ought to make necessary initiative from their side to end pervasive impunity.

Similarly, Chairperson also announced that the Commission will create a page in the web site of the Commission and a blood donation program will be organized dedicated to late Pariyar on his 11th death anniversary.

At the program Commissioners Prakash Osti, Sudip Pathak, Mohna Ansari, Govinda Sharma Poudyal including the chair of Informal Service Sector (INSEC) Subodh Pyakurel and kin of Late Pariyar, Praksh Chandra Pariyar said that though the murderer of late Pariyar has been identified and recommended to the Government of Nepal, the dilly dallying in taking action against the accuses by the administration was the height of impunity.
