NHRC urges immediate justice delivery

LALITPUR: The NHRC Chairperson Justice Anup Raj Sharma has said that the NHRC will pledge support to drag the murderer of Krishna Prasad Adhikari of Fujel, Gorkha to justice.

Visiting Bir Hospital to take the stock of the information of the health condition of Gangamaya Adhikari who has been staging hunger strike for a long time, Chairperson Sharma expressed commitment to drag the accused to justice remaining within the jurisdiction of the commission.

Adding that no one should be deprived of justice, Chairperson said that protection and respect of human rights is possible only when swift delivery of justice is executed.

On the occasion, Gangamaya Adhikari said that last rite of her deceased husband will not be performed until the action against the accused is taken.

Adding that her husband met death fighting for legal justice, she urged the commission to draw the attention of the concerned lest she could face the same fate as her husband provided the justice is delayed.

Having conducted the investigation on the above incident, the commission had recommended to the Government of Nepal on April 5, 2009 to prosecute the accused on the case of criminal offense, provide compensation to the family of the victim, and to create environment for the return of the family to their home of habitual residence by providing security to them. The commission urges the government to execute the commitments expressed to the family of Nanda Prasad Adhikari in the past.

Earlier, the commission had drawn the attention of the concerned time and again towards the deprivation of the rights to perform the last rites of the deceased Nanda Prasad Adhikari even after the completion of one year of his death.
