NHRC's attention drawn to comments on UPR

The attention of the National Human Rights Commission has been drawn to various comments being circulated in the public over the discussion held between Rt. Honorable Prime Minister and the NHRC Officials following the NHRC's formal statement on overall human rights situation of Nepal delivered in the 31st Universal Periodic Report (UPR) session in Human Rights Council (HRC), Geneva on March 16, 2016.

The NHRC would like to draw the attention of all stakeholders that the views expressed in the HRC session by Commissioner and Spokesperson Mohna Ansari was an official statement of the Commission, but not her personal remark. Since no one is above the law, the Commission is of the opinion that the authorities and responsible officials should focus on impunity and its consequences left on the protection and promotion of human rights. The Commission is clear that regular dialogues would be more effective to solve any difference in opinion or dispute.
