

NHRC Urges for Dialogue to Settle the Crisis, 4 May 2009

Press Release

NHRC Nepal expresses its grave concern over the critical situation in the country. This adverse situation may seriously affect the Comprehensive Peace Agreement, Interim Constitution of Nepal, 2007 and institutionalizing the efforts of the Loktantrik Movement 2006. This situation may affect long on the daily livelihood of people, human rights, and peace and security. In this situation, Constitution and Laws have to be analyzed for the wellbeing of national interest, rather than favouring any particular group.

Therefore, NHRC Nepal urges all the concerned parties to resolve the present crisis by dialogue and mutual agreement for fully implementing Comprehensive Peace Agreement, making constitution as per the schedule, and respecting and protecting the human rights of all Nepali people.
