Restrain Violence

The serious attention of the National Human Rights Commission has been drawn to the incidents of attack and arson perpetuated by the bandh enforcer on media, vandalizing of the public vehicles and the violation of freedom of movement of the people.

Though it is democratic right of the people to organize protest programs to express discontentment, the Commission would like to draw the attention of the stakeholders to be aware and responsible towards negative impact of such programs on the general citizens.

The Commission would also like to draw the attention of all stakeholders to advance their protest programs in peaceful, restrained and dignified manner.
