Government's Decision lauded on the NHRC Recommendations

The National Human Rights Commission heartily welcomes the directive of the Office of the Prime Minister and the Council of Ministers sent to the Home Ministry on August 12, 2013 to implement the NHRC Recommendations as per the decision made on April 5, 2009 on the complaint regarding the murder of Krishna Prasad Adhikari. The Commission urges the concerned authority to promptly translate the directive into action.

The Commission urges the Government to advance the process with conformity to assure the victim's family and stakeholders and to save and protect the lives of the parents of the deceased, who have been campaigning fast unto death demanding justice. Similarly, the Commission also urges the family members of the deceased and other stakeholders to pledge support in this concern.

The Commission had corresponded to the Office of the Prime Ministers and Council of Ministers with a reminder on August 12, 2013 to proceed with the investigation process with regard to the murder of Krishna Prasad Adhikari
