NHRC calls on all to commemorate Int'l Human Rights Day

The National Human Rights Commission is all set to observe the 66th International Human Rights Day by organizing various programs with the slogan “ Human Rights for all in every household, a base for peace and development.” Similarly, like past year, ‘Human Rights Magna Meet’ is going to take place from December 9th-11th in coordination and collaboration with the Commission.

The Commission will organize a special function on the occasion for the International Human Rights Day in the presence of Rt. Hon. Prime Minister Sushil Koirala as the chief guest at its premises on 10th December, 2014.

The NHRC Regional and Sub Regional Offices are marking the occasion from Monday onward by organizing various activities including the rally and interaction etc.

The Commission has also heartily requested all the people and organizations to observe the 66th International Human Rights Day by internalizing the mantra that all should have right to a dignified life.
