The slogan of NHRC

Human Rights in Each Household: a Base for Peace and Development

LALITPUR: The National Human Rights Commission has set the slogan “Human rights in each household: a base for peace and development” for the 66th International Human Rights Day (December 10).

The Commission will advance its human rights activities on the basis of this slogan for six years.

The Commission urges all the concerned stakeholders to accomplish the human rights activities keeping the chief value of this slogan at the pinnacle.
